We will structure our debate as follows:

- Moderator, timekeeper and question solicitors
- Candidates seated at a table in front of audience.
- Provide each candidate with an opportunity for opening comments (3 minutes) to highlight their platform and the issues of importance to them in this election.
- Three separate debates by Regions providing a time allocation to answer any specific questions that may be region-specific and pose questions to candidates that will be on that region's ballot.
- Invite all candidates back into full debate session to address questions that arrived in advance of the meeting as well as taking questions from the floor the night of the debate to be answered sequentially.
