About Our Host, Executive Chef, Paul Marshall

Chef Paul Marshall, born in Louisiana, started his career at the age of 14, where he learned every aspect of classical French technique. After gaining experience at the Four Seasons Hotel in Beverly Hills, CA and then in Florence, Paul returned to his native New Orleans, LA where he worked at the Internationally recognized Commanders Palace restaurant under Chef Emeril Lagasse. After gaining further experience in Floridian Cuisine in Boca Raton, FL and perfecting his Asian culinary skills in Hong Kong, and his later work in San Diego CA, Paul moved to New York City where he was Chef De cuisine of Oscars, the French Brasserie; the busiest restaurant in the Waldorf Astoria Hotel. Paul shares his talents and expertise in providing culinary workshops for Adults and Children focusing on the nutritional benefits of eating seasonal, local foods ending with a Farm to Table dining experience.

This is Charlestown Historical Society's only fund raiser of the year.
We greatly appreciate your attendance or donation.

We will be on grass and in a barn so please leave your stilettos at home.
