with

Additional Sketches

Shared by Our Community

and also including

Two DVD's of Beautifully Photographed and Narrated Stories about Charlestown People, Places and Activities

Published by the Charlestown Historical Society, this is a hardbound, illustrated, thoroughly indexed, 316 page book of the fascinating history of Charlestown Township, Chester County, PA.

This publication starts with Harman Rees's illustrated manuscript of the history of our Township until 1943. A second section includes 38 articles, mostly illustrated, on topics of historical significance including family histories, place and organization histories, and the history of activities taking place in Charlestown. The book includes two DVDs, professionally created and much of the material professionally filmed. The DVDs total over 5 hours of oral history with beautiful cinematography.

Learn more about the book at <http://www.charlestown.org>, where you can click a link near the top of our Home page for detailed information. The information includes the book's complete Table of Contents, Preface, A Biography of Harman Rees, and the comprehensive Index to the book.

Important Note: If you live locally, you can easily save the $5 per book shipping fee by purchasing your book(s) in person. The books are available for $47 at the Charlestown Township Office, located above the Devault Post Office on Whitehorse Road, and open from 9-3, Mon-Fri, except holidays. Payment at the office is via check only. The book is also available most Tuesday mornings at the CHS Wisner-Rapp House on Yellow Springs Road between Hollow and Valley Hill Roads. The book is also available at CHS meetings and from the CHS information table at the primary and general election polls at Charlestown Elementary School.
